*L*EGACY OF AN ECOCIDE:
Agent Orange Aftermath

by Petronella J. Ytsma

September 12 – October 28, 2009

ARTIST RECEPTION: Saturday, September 12 / 6–8 p.m.

SYMPOSIUM: Sunday, September 27 / time TBD

Award winning photographer, Petronella Ytsma's "Legacy of an Ecocide: Agent Orange Aftermath" evolved from a project she started in 2007 when she began researching and documenting issues surrounding Agent Orange/Dioxin years used during the Vietnam War, 1961–1971. The photographs in this exhibit capture some of the grandchildren and great-grandchildren of the war generation.

FALL ART TOUR • Saturday, October 3 • 5–8 p.m.

A multi-campus art crawl between Augsburg College, Bethel College, College of Visual Arts, Concordia University, Katherine E. Nash, U of MN, Macalester College, Northwestern College, St. Catherine University and University of St. Thomas.
